

Corruption : Global Problem

Agenda

What is corruption?

Causes of corruption

01

Upbringing

culture, family bonds are important than the justice, from the childhood we were told that we should be on the side of our parents, siblings, relatives, even if they are wrong,

02

Low Salary

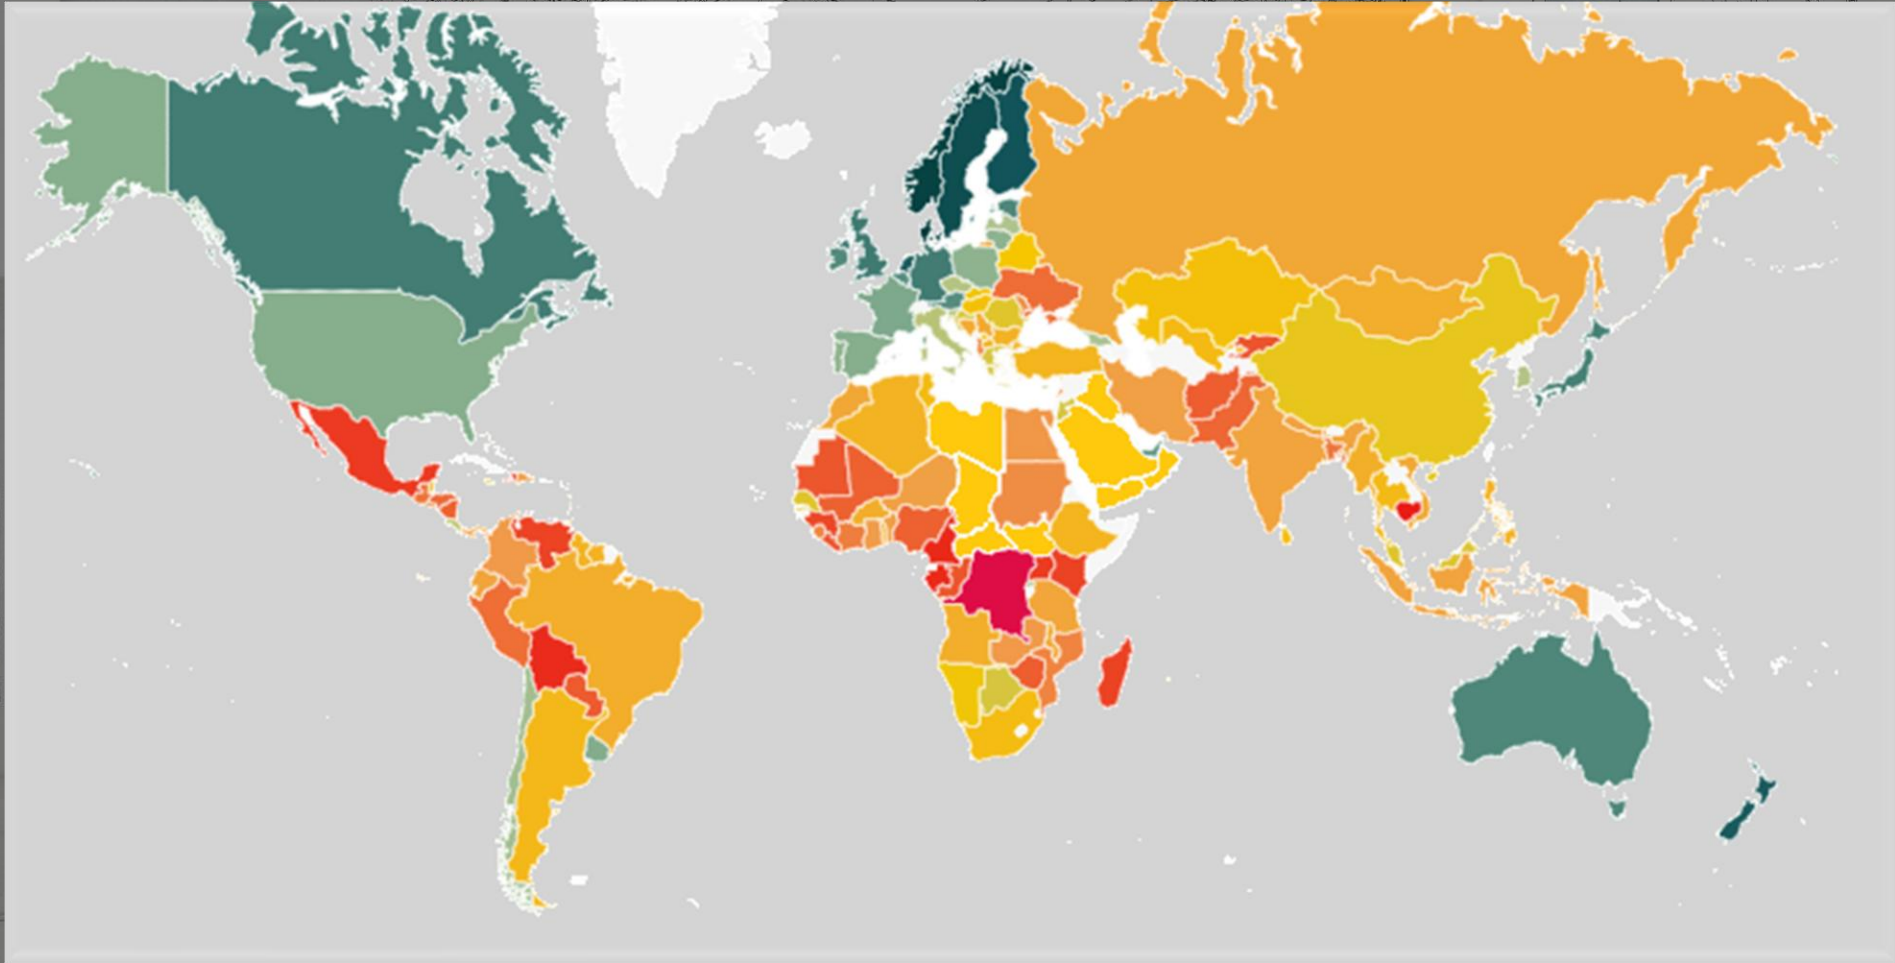

Great employees will never work for a wage which isn't even enough for keeping their own expenses, which will lead to them receiving bribes in order to fill up that void which has been left by low pay and long working hours

03

Lack of change

Authorities rarely change, which leads to the ones in charge to get too attached to their position, they befriend each other

Statistics

Worldwide Corruption index by

Effects of Corruption

Economic effects

- lead to higher prices for goods and services
- discourage investment
- lead to a misallocation of resources.

Social effects

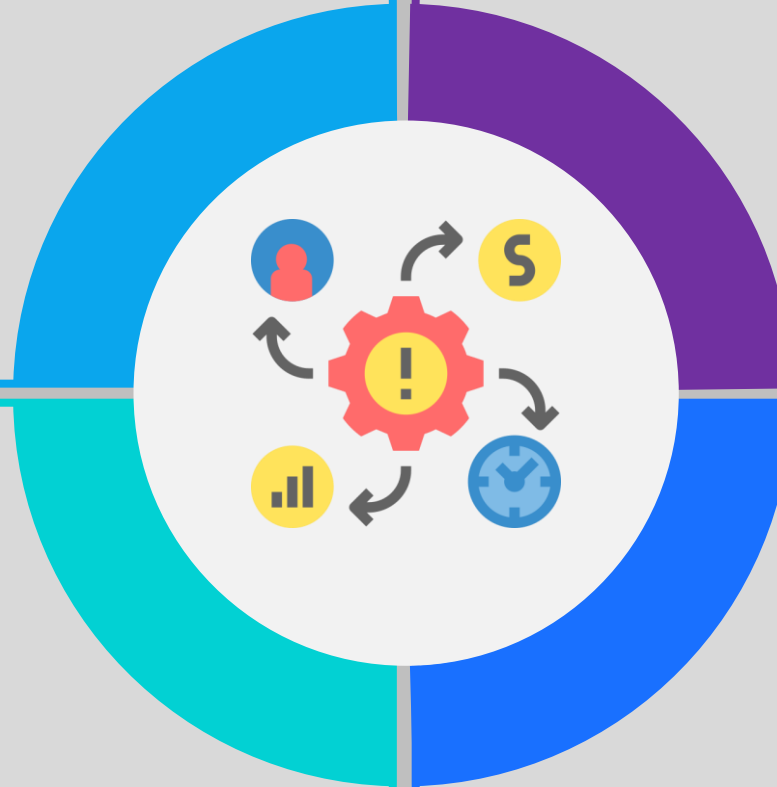

- can erode trust in government and institutions
- lead to a decline in the quality of life
 - exacerbate inequality

Environmental effects

- exploitation of natural resources,
- lead to the destruction of ecosystems
- forests are cleared and wetlands are drained

Political effects

- Weakened democratic institutions
 - Increased political instability
 - Reduced trust in government
 - Increased crime and violence

Singapore vs Corruption

The Singapore flag is shown waving on a flagpole against a clear blue sky. The flag features a red upper half with a white crescent and five white stars, and a white lower half.

The Corrupt Practices Investigation Bureau (CPIB)

The CPIB is a government agency that is responsible for investigating and prosecuting corruption cases.

The Public Service Commission (PSC)

The PSC is responsible for recruiting and appointing civil servants.

- Fine up to 100,000$ for bribery
- Prisoning for 3-5 years (7 years for parliament officials)

Germany vs Corruption

The Federal Office for the Prevention of Corruption (BKA)

The BKA is a federal agency that is responsible for investigating corruption cases

The Federal Audit Office (FAZ)

The FAZ is an independent body that is responsible for auditing the finances of the federal government.

The FAZ has a number of measures in place to ensure that government spending is transparent and accountable.

- Fine up to 500,000€ for bribery
- Prisoning up to 7-10 years

Similar & Different Solutions to Corruption

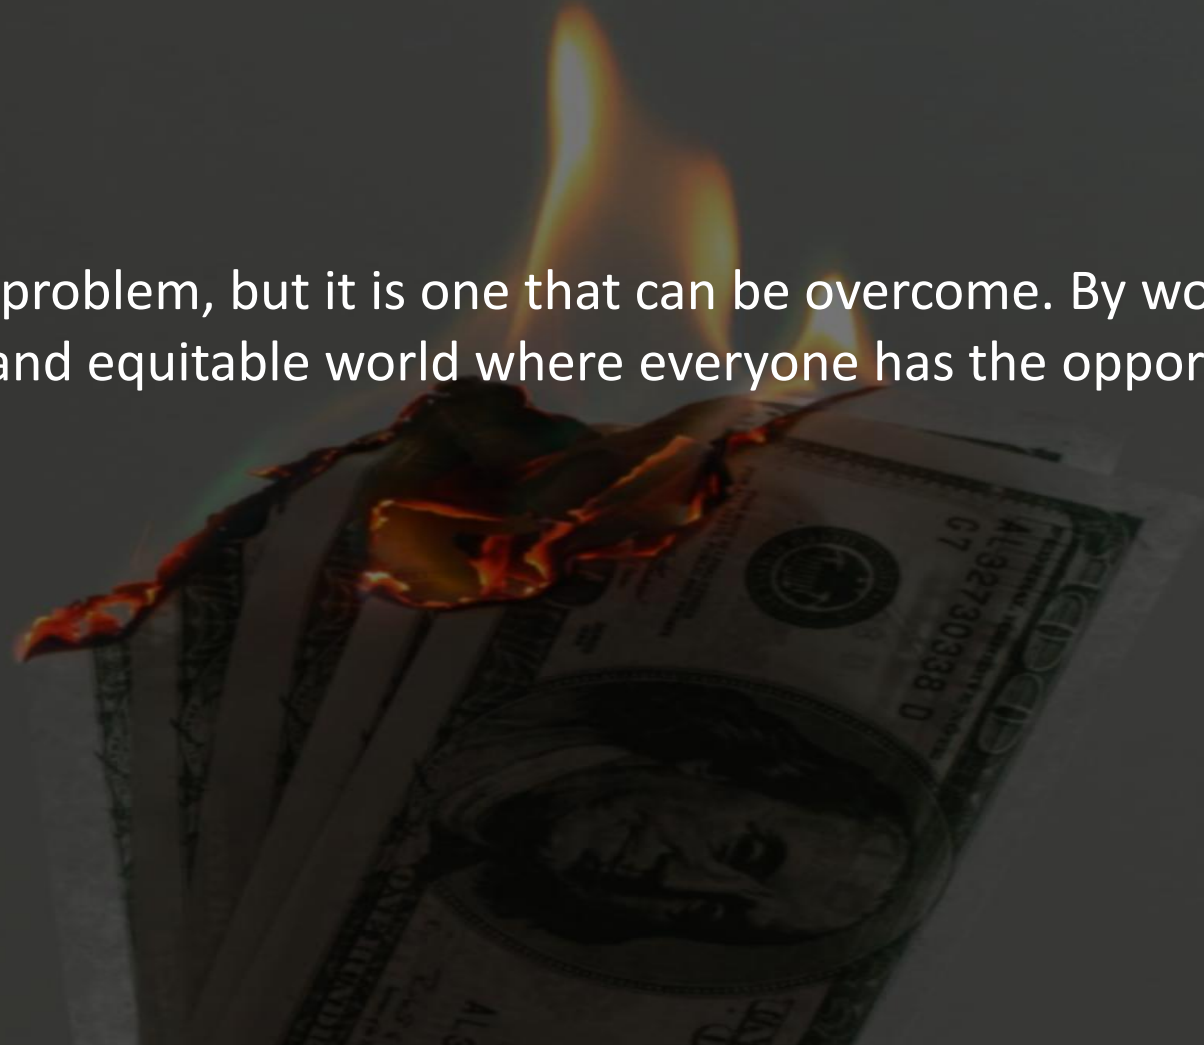

Differences:

Singapore:

- Whistleblower protection
- 100,000 $ fine
- 10 years in jail
- 5 years in Jail
- Very high fine (500,000 €)
- Fine amount and imprisonment time

Conclusion

Corruption is a complex problem, but it is one that can be overcome. By working together, we can create a more fair and equitable world where everyone has the opportunity to succeed.

NATURAL AND COMMON OBJECTS

I. TYPICAL BOARD OF EDUCATION EXAMINATION SYLLABUSES IN DRAWING

Thank you !

Xatamov Javohirbek (U2210251),
Muxammadamin Ulmasaliyev
(U2210236),
Tursunov Asiliddin (U2210233),
Turg'unov Kamron (U2210232)

