

Inha University in Tashkent

Theme 13.* Mutually Beneficial Relations of Uzbekistan with Foreign Countries

Tashkent – 2024

Outline:

THE OBJECTIVES OF UZBEKISTAN'S FOREIGN POLICY

PARTNERSHIP OF UZBEKISTAN
WITH INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

RELATIONS WITH FOREIGN COUNTRIES

STRATEGY OF ACTIONS

Objectives of Foreign Policy

- The main purpose of the foreign policy of the Republic of Uzbekistan is
 - to strengthen the role and place of the state
 - its independence and sovereignty,
 - the formation of a climate security, stability and neighborhood
 - actively promote the country's foreign economic interests.
- The principal position of our foreign policy is not
 - to join the military-political blocs
 - to prevent the deployment of military bases and facilities of other countries
 - loyalty to the settlement all conflicts and contradictions by way of political negotiations.
- One of the primary and priority tasks of foreign policy activities is the effective implementation of the Strategy of Actions in several key priorities of the Republic of Uzbekistan's development.

International Cooperation in Facts

- Today Uzbekistan has established diplomatic relations with more than 130 countries of the world.
- There are
 - 45 foreign embassies
 - 8 honorary consulates
 - 19 representations of international organizations
 - 18 international offices of international intergovernmental organizations and representative offices of government organizations
 - a representative office of diplomatic mission in Tashkent.
- There are 47 diplomatic and consular representations of the Republic of Uzbekistan in foreign countries and international organizations.
- Uzbekistan is a member of more than 100 international organizations and develops partnerships with various multilateral institutions of the country.

Cooperation with UN

- On March 2, 1992, the Republic of Uzbekistan was admitted to the United Nations, the world's most influential international organization, on its own volition and offering. Our country has become a full member of the international community.
- President Islam Karimov took part in the 48th Session of the UN General Assembly in 1993.
- On October 24, 1993, a representative office of the United Nations in Tashkent was opened and it started its functioning.
- Under the aegis of Uzbekistan and UN, on September 15-16, 1995, the Tashkent Council for Security and Cooperation in Central Asia was held. The autonomous representatives from 31 countries and 6 international organizations participating in the International Conference have expressed their views and suggestions on
 - establishing a reliable system for regional security
 - conflict prevention
 - and integration processes.
- On September 15-16, 1997, an international conference titled "Central Asian Nuclear-Weapon-Free Zone" was held in Tashkent. Representatives from 56 countries and 16 international organizations attended the event. The declaration of the Central Asian Ministries of Foreign Affairs was signed on this issue.

Uzbekistan and international organizations

- In 1997, under the auspices of UN, the group "6 + 2" (Pakistan, Iran, China, Turkmenistan, Tajikistan, Uzbekistan, and guaranteed countries - the United States and Russia) was formed on the basis of the proposal of Uzbekistan to set up a Contact Group on the peaceful resolution of the problem in Afghanistan.
- Uzbekistan became a key player in the group. On 19-20, July 1999 meeting of 6 + 2 group on the Afghan Conflict Resolution was held in Tashkent. The Tashkent Declaration was adopted.
- As a continuation of this initiative, in 2008 the President of Uzbekistan proposed to establish a Contact Group "6 + 3". Taking into consideration the current situation at this stage, it was suggested that the group be included in the NATO. The task of controlling and coordinating the contact group was entrusted the Special Representative of General Secretary of UN for Afghanistan. The purpose of this group was to unite efforts to find a peaceful and effective solution to the problem of achieving peace and stability in Afghanistan.

Uzbekistan-UNESCO

- The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) was established on November 16, 1945. UNESCO Headquarter is located in Paris. The General Director is Audrey Azoulay (France), who was elected to this post during the 39th session of the General Conference of UNESCO in October, 2017.
- UNESCO implements activities through its programs, which are aimed at the development of science, culture and education.
- Uzbekistan has been the member of UNESCO since October 26, 1993. The UNESCO Office in the Republic of Uzbekistan has been operating since April 23, 1996.
- Uzbekistan is actively involved in the activities of UNESCO. Uzbekistan was twice elected to the Executive Council of UNESCO in 1997-2001 and 2009-2013.
- Based on the proposals of the Republic of Uzbekistan, under the auspices and with the participation of UNESCO, several anniversaries were widely celebrated.
- The interaction of Uzbekistan with UNESCO also affords an opportunity to popularize the Uzbek musical culture abroad. In this context, the International Music Festival “Sharq Taronalari” is regularly held under the auspices of UNESCO in the city of Samarkand.
- In 1995 with the assistance of UNESCO in Samarkand, the International Institute for Central Asian Studies (IICAS) was established. Currently, IICAS has 8 departments and 10 centers, as well as 34 UNESCO Associated Schools operating Uzbekistan.

Shanghai Cooperation Organization

- During the summits in 1996 in Shanghai and in 1997 in Moscow, the agreements on the Strengthening of Mutual Trust and Armed Forces in Military Fields and Border Areas were signed by the Heads of States of China, Russia, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, and Tajikistan. Thus, the Shanghai Forum was established.
- On June 14-15, 2001, the Shanghai summit was held in China. President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Islam Karimov participated in its work and made a statement on the full membership of the Shanghai Forum. Due to the fact that Uzbekistan has joined the Shanghai Forum, its name has been changed to Shanghai Cooperation Organization (SCO). Uzbekistan became one of its founders.
- At the summit in Moscow on May 29, 2003, it was decided to establish two functioning bodies of SCO - the Secretariat in Beijing and the Executive Committee of the Regional Anti-Terrorist Structure in Tashkent. These organizations started working in January 2004.
- On June 17, 2004, the SCO summit was held in Tashkent. The two main issues - security and trade-economic cooperation discussed.
- On July 9-10, 2015, the next SCO summit was held in Ufa, at the end of the summit of SCO Heads of States signed the Ufa Declaration, approved the development strategy of SCO towards 2025, the Program of cooperation of SCO member states in the fight against terrorism, separatism and extremism for 2016-2018, decided to initiate the procedure admission of India and Pakistan as a member SCO.
- Upon completion of the Ufa summit the chairmanship of the Organization for 2015-2016 passed to Uzbekistan.

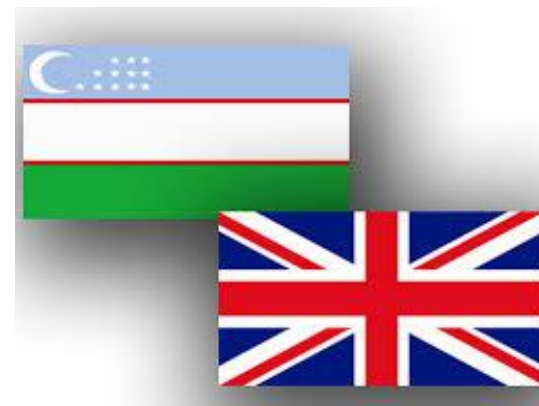

Uzbek-American Relations

- Nowadays, the Republic of Uzbekistan has established diplomatic relations with 21 countries of North and South America.
- Cooperation with the United States of America is one of the priorities of foreign policy of Uzbekistan, which is also reflected in «The Concept of Foreign Policy of the Republic of Uzbekistan».
- Interstate relations between Uzbekistan and the United States were established in the early years of independence. On February 15-16, 1992, US State Secretary of James Baker paid an official visit to Uzbekistan and established diplomatic relations between two countries. On March 16, 1992, the US Embassy opened in Tashkent.
- A decisive role in bilateral relations plays Declaration between the Republic of Uzbekistan and the United States of America on strategic partnership and the principles of cooperation signed in 2002.
- President of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoyev made a visit to the United States on September 20, 2023. The President made a speech at the 78th session of the UN General Assembly.

Uzbekistan-Great Britain

- The relations of Uzbekistan with the European states develop on a bilateral level as well as in framework of Partnership Cooperation Agreement between the Republic of Uzbekistan and the European Communities and their Member States which entered into force on July 1, 1999.
- The foundation of Uzbek-British relations was laid during the visit of the First President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Islam Karimov to Great Britain in November 1993.
- Visit of the delegation of the Republic of Uzbekistan led by Minister of Foreign Affairs Abdulaziz Kamilov to Great Britain on November 20-22, 2013 marked an important step in enhancing relations of two countries.
- An Uzbek-British Trade and Industry Council (UBTIC) has been an effective mechanism of trade-economic relations. On November 16-18, 2016, Tashkent hosted the 23rd session of UBTIC.
- In January-September 2017 the trade turnover between Uzbekistan and Great Britain totaled $115.9 million
- In 2016, trade between Uzbekistan and Great Britain totaled USD 151.3 million, of which USD 40.6 million accounts for export and USD 110,7 million – accounts for import.

Uzbek-Saudi Relations

- The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia recognized the independence of the Republic of Uzbekistan in December 1991. Diplomatic relations between Uzbekistan and Saudi Arabia established in February 1992.
- The President of the Republic of Uzbekistan Islam Karimov visited the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia in April 1992.
- In November 1992 the General Consulate of the Republic of Uzbekistan was opened in Jeddah. In 1995, the Embassy of Uzbekistan was opened in Riyadh. In 1997 the Embassy of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia has opened in Tashkent.
- In April 2012, the Saudi delegation headed by Chairman of the Advisory Council (parliament) Abdullah Al ash-Sheikh visited Uzbekistan.
- In July 2012 the Saudi delegation headed by Minister of State for Foreign Affairs Nizar bin Obaid Madani visited Uzbekistan, during which held political consultations between the foreign Ministries of two countries.

Uzbek-Korean Partnership

- The Republic of Korea recognized the Independence of Uzbekistan on December 30, 1991. The diplomatic relations were established on January 29, 1992.
- Since that fourteen high level meetings have taken place (1992, 1994, 1995, 1999, 2005, 2006, twice in 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2014, 2015 and 2017).
- In 2006 Joint Declaration on Strategic Partnership was signed.
- As a result of the State visit of the President of Uzbekistan Shavkat Mirziyoev to the Republic of Korea on November 22-25, 2017, was signed Joint Declaration and 64 agreements and contracts of total worth about $10 bln. on trade, economy, investment and financial-technical cooperation spheres, including $4 bln. of direct South Korean investments
- According to the State Statistics Committee of Uzbekistan, the trade turnover totaled $1.36 bln. in 2017.

Strategy of Actions for the Five Priority Areas

- The President of Uzbekistan by his decree of February 7 approved the Strategy of Action for the five priority areas of the country's development in 2017-2021
- The goal of the strategy, designed for 2017-2021, is a radical increase in the effectiveness of the reforms being implemented, creating conditions for ensuring comprehensive and accelerated development of the state and society, implementing priority directions for the country's modernization and liberalizing all spheres of life.

Five priority areas

- Each colors in the emblem of the Strategy of Action has specific meanings:
- 1) Blue color – Priority direction for improving the system of state and public construction
 - 2) Magenta color – Priority area for ensuring the supremacy of law and further reform of the judicial authority
 - 3) Gold color – development and liberalization of the economy
 - 4) Red color – Priority direction for the development of the social sphere
 - 5) White color – Ensuring security, religious tolerance and interethnic harmony, and constructive foreign policy

-
- The President of Uzbekistan by his decree of January 28, 2022, approved the Strategy of Actions for the seven priority areas of the country's development in 2022-2026.

The New Uzbekistan Development Strategy consists of 7 areas:

- The first direction is aimed at establishing a people-friendly state through the development of a free civil society.
- The second direction covers the tasks of strengthening justice and the rule of law, ensuring human dignity.
- The third direction covers plans for the development of the national economy.
- Based on the fourth direction, the issue of quality education, which is considered the most important factor in the development of human capital and fair social policy, will continue to be in the center of constant attention.

UZBEKISTAN ECONOMIC UPDATE • SUMMER 2017

- Reforms in the spiritual and educational spheres are carried out based on the fifth direction.
- The sixth direction focuses on finding solutions to global problems at the national and regional levels and harmonizing all efforts in this regard.
- In the seventh direction, the tasks of ensuring peace and security in our country and developing international cooperation are expressed. Attention will be paid to increasing the power of the Armed Forces of Uzbekistan, strengthening the military's combat readiness, physical and moral readiness.

Thank you for your attention!